

To the Grocers and Housewives of Northeastern Vermont

We are pleased to announce that we have been appointed distributors in Northern Vermont for

DANIEL WEBSTER FLOUR

BETTER THAN THE BEST

We are particularly pleased to make this announcement because of the extremely enviable reputation DANIEL WEBSTER FLOUR has built up among thrifty breadmakers of New England.

Milled from the choicest, northern hard spring wheat DANIEL WEBSTER FLOUR has no equal in flour purity and economy. So uncommonly good is its quality that we are authorized by the Eagle Rolling Mill Co., New Elm, Minnesota, millers of DANIEL WEBSTER FLOUR to guarantee it "Better than the Best."

By special arrangements with the manufacturers of this famous flour, we are fully prepared to meet all demands immediately. We are in a position to supply grocers at once with unlimited quantity in order that housewives who are anxious to use DANIEL WEBSTER FLOUR in their bread-making can secure it without delay.

Read the guarantee printed at the side of this advertisement--then phone your order to your grocer or to us.

SOUTH WALDEN

Mrs. N. H. Drew is on the sick list.

School begins next Tuesday with Mabel D. Wilson as teacher. Mrs. Wilson taught here several terms a few years ago and our directors and superintendent are very fortunate to secure her services again, for she is an experienced teacher, well educated and of rare ability with children.

There will be a choir rehearsal at A. F. Grow's Thursday evening. Mrs. Mary W. Stevens has returned from Craftsbury where she visited her brother, C. E. Webber, a few days recently.

Mr. Balde-saro has rented the Sunset House owned by the Stevens heirs for two months.

W. H. Worthen was a business visitor here recently.

Albert W. Stevens, formerly of this place, and Miss Elaine F. Cunningham of Troy, N. Y., were married last Thursday evening at the Episcopal parsonage in Vinook, Vt., by Rev. Walter O'Connor. The best man was Leo Breslin of Concord, N. H., and the brides maid was Mrs. Charles E. Summers, a sister of the bride.

Owing to unfavorable conditions, Mr. and Mrs. Stevens will only visit his mother in Lancaster, N. H., then they plan to go to Lincoln, Neb., where the groom has employment as private secretary for Dr. E. L. Messer of the Nebraska state Board of Dentistry. After a two weeks honeymoon they will be at home to their friends on 231 North Summer street, Lincoln, Neb.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Babcock motored to Stowe last Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. George F. Smith went with them.

Mrs. Mary Stevens is visiting friends in St. Johnsbury before going to Lancaster, N. H., in a few days to visit Mr. and Mrs. Selden Freeman.

Dale Grow is working for M. O. Fleming during the harvesting season.

Chaplain Sidney F. Colby, U. S. Army (air service) will speak at the M. E. church Sunday, Sept. 19th, at 10:30 a. m., on the "Fellowship of Catholics and Protestants on the Battlefields of France."

The Chaplain was in the 26th division and is on a month's furlough and will make several speeches in Vermont and New England before returning to Camp Lee, Va., in October. Let's get out and hear this excellent speaker.

Miss Glenna M. Perkins is teaching on Housin Hill.
